In the light of God are our true roots

by Claude Vigée (French Poet)

“The principle of light is the Creator (...). We read at the end of Psalm 36 :
”in your light do we see light”.

You still have to desire it, seek it within yourself, receive its influx into your inner self, because "in you is the fountain of life”.

The only thing that can really matter to us is the gentle and hidden radiance of the "little flame" alight at the bottom of our personal identity: its own radiance changes everything there, and makes us, in the deepest sense of the term, children of the Lord.

In that light are our true roots, the object of Israel's teaching to her sons, and also to those of the nations who listen to them.
